    <h1>WEB & INTERNET TECHNOLOGY</h1>
     Web Design is the process of creating, making, and developing websites. It includes many different features such as webpage layout, webpage content, and also graphic designs. In general web design and web development work together, but the term web design is an actual category of web development.

      Aquilaria and Gyrinops are genera of tropical trees that produce a valuable resinous called agarwood. the aromatic properties of agarwood when burned or distilled are extraordinary and there is high demand for the resinous wood to make incense, perfume and as traditional medicine.
